

This Old Man

Adapted Lyrics: Mark Alexander (SOCAN)

Music: Trad.

© 2004 Just for Me Music Inc. All lyrics reprinted with permission

This old man he played one
But I think that old song's been done,
So let's look for colours, and take a little stroll.
But let's do it to Rock'n'Roll !

This old man he played one
But Rock'n'Roll is much more fun,
So we're going to look for colours, me and you.
.... can you find something BLUE?

Can you see blue jeans or big blue eyes?
Blue suits blue shirts or blue ties
All the blues, there are so many to be seen
.... can you see something GREEN?

Can you look outside for a green tree
Or is something green on the TV
The grass is also green but now instead,
.... can you find something RED?

Can you see a big red, bouncing ball
Or bright red clothing on a doll?
Or is there a bright red apple to be found?
.... Can you find something BROWN?

Can you see a brown desk, or a big brown chair
Some big brown eyes or long brown hair

Maybe you can find a big brown table
Now let's find something WHITE if we're able

White milk from a big white cow that moos
Some bright white teeth or bright white shoes
You can see a lot of white things in a house
Was that a little white Mouse ?

This old man he has no doubt
That there are colours all about
We'll get together soon I hope, and then
.... we can do it all again